Marissa Renee Murrow

Marissa Renee Murrow, a sophomore special education major at University of Central Oklahoma in Edmond, passed away Oct. 3.

She was born Jan. 24, 2001, in Oklahoma City to Jeff and Kristy Murrow.

Marissa grew up in Mustang and was a 2019 graduate and valedictorian of Mustang High School.

She participated in cheerleading and various student organizations.

Through high school, Marissa showed love through her service to the wrestling team as a team manager for three years. She was a member of the Chisholm Heights Baptist Church youth group and loved singing and leading worship with the praise band.

In college, Marissa was a member of the Sigma Kappa sorority.

She was giving in all that she did in life, evidenced by her choice to be an organ donor.

Marissa is survived by her parents, Jeff and Kristy Murrow; brother and sister-in-law, Corbin and Tanya Murrow; granddad and grandmother, Wayne and Nila Murrow; grandma, Kathy Kennedy; and many loving aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Marissa was preceded in death by her grandpa, Darell Kennedy.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Chisholm Heights Baptist Church in Mustang.

Burial will follow at the Mustang Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, her family is requesting donations be made "In Memory of Marissa Murrow" and directed to: Delta Chi Capital Campaign, P O Box 2408, Edmond, OK, 73083 or to the Life-Share Foundation in her honor. Complete
